

Problem Statement for KK's Pet Sitting App

Users need a way to easily schedule pet care appointments and change or update personal client information on the go because it will result in better communication and smoother flow of information between client and pet care service provider.